MEMBER PROTECTION POLICY

Footscray Hockey club support Hockey Victoria's adoption of the Hockey Australia's Member Protection Policy. The policy provides our FHC's position on harassment, discrimination, child protection. It outlines the legal and ethical rights and responsibilities of those involved in our sport. In addition it provides the procedure for dealing with complaints.

MEMBER PROTECTION INFORMATION OFFICER (MPIO)

A Member Protection Information Officer is responsible for providing information about a person's rights, responsibilities and options to an individual making a complaint or raising a concern. They can also provide information and advice to sport administrators and complaint handlers with regard to the Member Protection Policy of that sport. MPIOs are generally impartial; they do not mediate or investigate complaints.
